

Do you shop at WalMart online? COVE is now a registered charity with WalMart. You can roundup to donate to COVE when you checkout. Here is a link to describe how it works.

<https://www.walmart.com/nonprofits/9f2bdbfc-eb4a-41f4-bb3c-ec12a76af34a/profile>

Thanks for supporting Center of Vision Enhancement.

Walmart+ Is Now Half-Priced for Families on Government Assistance

Families and individuals who receive government assistance, such as SNAP or Medicaid, are now eligible for the Walmart+ Assist: <https://www.walmart.com/plus/assist> program. The idea is pretty simple; you get all of the Walmart+ benefits at half the usual price. That means free shipping, free grocery deliveries, access to Paramount+, and more for $6.47 a month or $49 a year.

Walmart+ debuted a few years ago as an Amazon Prime competitor. It normally costs $12.95 a month or $98 a year, and it includes several unique benefits.

Here's a quick rundown of Walmart+:

- * Free shipping from Walmart.com
- * Free grocery delivery on orders of $35 or more
- * Free Paramount+ membership
- * Ad-free streaming on some Pluto TV content
- * Walmart will pick up returns from your home
- * Mobile scan-and-go at Walmart stores
- * Early access to Black Friday prices
- * Save 10¢ per gallon at Exxon, Mobil, and Murphy stations
- * A rotating selection of limited-time offers

With Walmart+ Assist, you get all of these benefits at half the usual price. All you need to do is visit the Walmart+ Assist page: <https://www.walmart.com/plus/assist> where your eligibility will be verified through SheerID. (Note that you'll also get a monthlong trial, so long as you're a new member.)

Qualifying government assistance programs include SNAP, WIC, Medicaid, SSI, TANF, TTANF, NSLP, and LIHEAP. If you're on one of these programs, Walmart+ Assist may be worth your consideration. It's certainly a lot cheaper than Prime.

Again, you can sign up for Walmart+ Assist at the Walmart website: <https://www.walmart.com/plus/assist>